

Floating Through Holland and Belgium

By Brenda Davison

Lulu.com. Paperback. Condition: New. 104 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. When Brenda met her second husband John, she had never sailed before. John introduced her to the sailing life. She says she was like Mole in Wind in the Willows and soon came to agree that there was nothing half so much worth doing as simply messing about in boats. In this, Brenda's second book about the sailing life, they take possession of a new boat in Holland and sail through Holland and Belgium to France. The book describes their journey as they begin to get used to a new boat in a new country, and gives a fascinating insight into the places they pass through, describing their feelings as they develop, from the early nervous excitement through trepidation to confidence and even aplomb. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

Reviews

The publication is easy to read better to understand. It is written in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You won't truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).

It is just one of my personal favorite books. I was able to comprehend every little thing out of this published e-publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
