

Horse of Seven Moons (Paperback)

By K. Taschek

University of New Mexico Press, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. For ages 9-12. Struggling up the mountainside in a fierce storm, sixteen-year-old Bin-daa-dee-nin tries to survive. The Mescalero Apache has lived off the land in south-western New Mexico, hunting and raiding since the death of Apache leader Victorio last October 1880. Just before dawn, under a full moon, Bin-daa-dee-nin finds a black-and-white horse whose intelligence and beauty surpass that of any horse he s ever seen. Bin-daa-dee-nin trains the surefooted pinto to run fast on command so that he can use him to hunt and on raids. But when the army attacks, the horse disappears. Fourteen-year-old Sarah Chilton has never felt at home on her family s ranch in New Mexico near Cooke s Peak. At least, not the way she did in Fort Smith, Arkansas, where she lived until just four months ago. Then on Valentine s Day, 1881, Sarah finds the horse of her dreams: a gorgeous pinto, wandering near the river under a bright moon. She names him Moon Dancer and teaches him to jump. Just as she s making wonderful progress with Moon Dancer s training, the Apaches raid...
