

The Seurat Construct (Paperback)

By David S Wellhauser

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . For Francis Bacon- Revenge is a kind of wild justice . For Sandu Barr, it was all which remained to him in the years since his wife s enigmatic death. Drawn across cities, countries, and continents by ludic memories and quixotic chimaeras, Sandu is fired by the pursuit of what happened, why, and-above all-for those responsible. Still, he d no real expectation of success until that evening in the industrial basin. The cryptic encounter-hard on the docks-with the figure scuttling down the ruined, derelict streets offered the first genuine opportunity in years. From this a widening gyre of gesture, absurdity, battle ballet, metaphysical elusion, and political in-fighting emerged. Detail nearly drowning sense and purpose. Helped by dream, a jade-eyed, black grimalkin of mixed purpose, a hesitant, self-righteous cabal, and his own rage he stalks a tableau of characters and elusive endgames which cross time, M-Theory, myth, folklore, eschatology, and the burdened air of revolutionary wrath and justice. Cossetting these is an exegetical, if suspicious, promise of redemption. The Seurat Construct is Book I of The Burdened Air . This is followed by...
